

Jawahir Oman to Participate in Doha Jewellery and Watches Exhibition

Muscat, February 17, 2018: Jawahir Oman, one the most reputable Omani jewellery creators, will be participating in the Doha Jewellery and Watches Exhibition that will be held from February 21 to 26 at the Doha Exhibition and Convention Centre

Commenting on this participation, Mohammad Al Farei, Managing Director of Jawahir Oman said, “The event will give us an opportunity to reach out to customers. It will allow us to showcase the true individuality of the jewellery we make; something that is key aspect of our creations and a driving force behind providing customers with designs that are unique both in their appearance and in spirit. Right to the sparkle of a single particular gem, every ornament within our range of products is handcrafted to the finest detail and is exceptional in its own way.”

Since its establishment in 1997, Jawahir Oman has earned a standing as one of the most esteemed crafters of exceptionally beautiful and bespoke local jewellery. They have well-equipped factories which employ highly skilled and dedicated artisans jewellers, from Oman and also around the world. Their objective is to be able to create high quality pieces that are personalised for every person, guaranteeing each one with their own distinctive statement.

Shafiq Yacob, Showroom Manager of Jawahir Oman said, “Our participation in Qatar is aimed at showcasing the different experiences we offer with our jewellery; an aspect that sets us apart from all the existing jewellery makers. We also hope to increase our customer base, branching out regionally first before expanding on a global scale. We invite all individuals, especially those who are particularly interested in locally crafted and customised ornaments, to visit our booth for a truly enriching experience.”

Doha Jewellery and Watches Exhibition is a precious journey to the very core of glamour. The exhibition combines exclusivity, beauty, art, legacy, and unique craftsmanship to tell the unforgettable story behind each item. The exhibition will be hosting more than four hundred international luxury brands, who will display their finest work, special editions, and unique pieces, alongside the most talented emerging local jewellery designers.

The exhibition is open to all jewellery and time-piece connoisseurs, and represents an opportunity for brands and designers to meet with their public in a convivial and exclusive atmosphere.

To see the Jawahir Oman range of jewellery or to enquire about creating something special, visit their booth (number C1B) at the exhibition. Alternatively please call [+968 24563239] or email [info@jawahiroman.com] or find us on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter.

-End-